Introduction

To understand our curriculum setting, let's take a look at Confucius Institute Headquarter(Hanban)'s requirements for HSK exams.

“Chinese Proficiency Test (HSK), an international standardized test of Chinese language proficiency, assesses non-native Chinese speakers' abilities in using the Chinese language in their daily, academic and professional lives. HSK consists of six levels, namely HSK (level I), HSK (level II), HSK (level III), HSK (level IV), HSK (level V), and HSK (level VI).”

Level and Textbook	Target Level	Vocabulary	Course Hours
Standard Course 1	HSK 1	150	30-34
Standard Course 2	HSK 2	300	30-36
Standard Course 3	HSK 3	600	35-40
Standard Course 4 (A)&(B)	HSK 4	1200	75-80
Standard Course 5 (A)&(B)	HSK 5	2500	170-180
Standard Course 6 (A)&(B)	HSK 6	5000 or above	510-550

Requirements of HSK Level 2

- The HSK (Level II) assesses test takers' abilities in the application of everyday Chinese
- It is the counterpart of the Level II of the Chinese Language Proficiency Scales for Speakers of Other Languages and the A2 Level of the Common European Framework of Reference (CEF)
- Test takers who are able to pass the HSK (Level II) have an excellent grasp of basic Chinese and can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and routine matters
- HSK Level 2 is intended for students who have studied Chinese for two semesters (an academic year), with 2-3 class hours in each week. These students have mastered 300 commonly used words and related grammar patterns

Course Level	HSK Level	Total Hours
Beginner	2	36hrs. (weekly commitment of 3 hrs recommended)
